

WOW COMMODITY PURCHASE PROGRAM®

Turning Your Inventory Into Cash

The Problem:

Before being sold to wholesalers, processed and frozen meat is often stored for extended periods of time, tying up valuable capital that could otherwise be allocated toward strategic initiatives.

Our Proven Solution:

The value of the WOW COMMODITY PURCHASE PROGRAM® positions WOW Logistics as one of the largest private inventory purchasers in the U.S. We are experts in storing and handling food-grade products and have access to an extensive network of over 100 warehouses across the country.

The program provides the following benefits:

- Faster, easier approval process with 100% advance rate and NO upfront equity required

- Ability to adjust inventory volumes with NO additional fees

- Deferred interest, inbound transportation, and storage/handling fees until product sells and ships
